HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.

FARES BY DISTANCE.

61. The distance to which any hackney carriage may be driven under these bye-laws shall be five miles from the Cross of Edinburgh; and the driver of a hackney carriage shall not at any time convey more than five adults in or on such carriage.

(1) The fares for a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter hired from a theatre or other place of public resort shall be reckoned as from the nearest stance, when the same is within half a mile, otherwise the fare shall be computed according to No. 5 of this bye-law. The charges specified shall include going from the stance or stable to take up the party hiring at any point within half a mile therefrom, and waiting for ten minutes. Where the distance driven for taking up shall exceed half a mile from the stance or stable whence the carriage is taken, a charge of sixpence for every mile or part thereof shall be allowed after the free half mile; and if the carriage be detained before starting for more than ten minutes, a charge for waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour or part thereof after the expiry of the ten minutes shall be allowed.

(2) There shall be no charge for waiting while a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter is on the way to a destination unless the waiting before starting and the waiting by the way exceeds in all ten minutes; and when such waiting exceeds ten minutes it shall be charged for in terms of No. 1 of this bye-law. There shall be no charge for a short deviation from the direct route.

(3) The fare to any place not mentioned in the Table shall be the same as to any place mentioned therein which is in the immediate vicinity.

(4) In the event of any new stance being appointed during the currency of these regulations, the fares from said new stance shall be the same as from the stance nearest to it, when the same is within half a mile.

(5) When the fare of any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the fare for any distance not exceeding a mile and a quarter shall be as follows, viz. :—

For any number of passengers not exceeding four	1s. 0d.
For five passengers	1s. 6d.
And for every additional half mile or part thereof	6d.

(6) When the party returns half fare only shall be payable, and the carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; if the carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every quarter of an hour or part thereof, commencing when the free waiting expires.

(7) When a hackney carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the stance or stable, and 1s. if beyond that distance. Waiting shall be charged for as under No. 1 of this bye-law.

FARES BY TIME.

62. (1) The hirer may engage a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter by time when the same is to be used within the municipal bounds, for SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous, and does not exceed two-thirds of the time during which the carriage may be engaged. The charge in such a case shall be 2s. 6d. for the first hour or part thereof for any number of passengers not exceeding four, and 10d. for every additional twenty minutes or part thereof. When five passengers are driven 6d. extra shall be allowed on the total fare. When the carriage is discharged at a greater distance than a mile from the point where the same was engaged, a charge shall be allowed for returning thereto at the rate of half the distance fare.

(2) For an Airing into the country within eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning, and for continuous driving within the municipal bounds, in a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter, the rate shall be 4s. for any period of time not exceeding one hour and twenty minutes, and 1s. for every additional twenty minutes or part thereof. Unless the hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when a carriage is engaged by time shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the hirer, it shall be optional for the hirer to pay the fare at the rate of 4s. for every eight miles so travelled. The above rate is for four passengers. When five passengers are driven 6d. extra shall be added to the total fare.

(3) Notice of the intention to pay by time must be given by the hirer at the commencement of the engagement, otherwise the fare may be charged by distance. The charges under Sections 1 and 2 of this bye-law shall include going from the stance or stable to take up the party hiring from any point within half a mile therefrom, and where a greater distance is driven for taking up, a charge of 6d. for every mile or part thereof after the free half mile shall be allowed.

DOUBLE FARE.

63. Between 12 o'clock midnight and 7 o'clock in the morning double fare shall be allowed in the case of fares either by distance or by time, but this shall not apply to the charge for luggage.

There shall be no additional charge when two horses are used by the owner without being required to do so; but if two horses be used at the request of a hirer, the charge shall be fare and a half.

LUGGAGE.

64. The hirer of a hackney carriage shall not be charged for luggage under 100 lbs. in weight, but where it exceeds that weight, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, and in no case shall a driver be bound to convey more than 1 cwt. of luggage. A charge of 6d. shall be allowed for the carriage of a bicycle, mail-cart, or perambulator. The driver shall assist in loading and unloading luggage in all cases when required, but shall not be compelled to leave the immediate proximity of his hackney carriage in doing so.

FARES FOR HACKNEY CARRIAGES FITTED WITH TAXIMETERS.

MOTOR HACKNEY CARRIAGES.

65. The fare to be paid by one or two passengers for the use of a motor hackney carriage fitted with a taximeter recording the fare by a combination of time and distance shall be as follows, viz. :—

For a distance not exceeding one mile, or for a period of time not exceeding ten minutes,	1s.
For every additional quarter of a mile or part thereof, or for an additional period of time not exceeding two and a half minutes,	2d.

HORSE-DRAWN HACKNEY CARRIAGES.

66. The fare to be paid by one or two passengers for the use of a horse-drawn hackney carriage fitted with a taximeter recording the fare by a combination of time and distance shall be as follows, viz. :—

For a distance not exceeding one mile, or for a period of time not exceeding fifteen minutes,	8d.
For every additional half mile or part thereof, or for an additional period of time not exceeding seven and a half minutes,	4d.

67. A hackney carriage fitted with a taximeter when called from a stance or garage to take up a party hiring shall for that purpose go a distance not exceeding half a mile free of charge.

No back fare shall be payable for the return of a motor hackney carriage from the place at which it is discharged.

EXTRAS.

68. In addition to the above the following charges shall be payable:—

For any number of passengers more than two, 6d.

Luggage—

For each bicycle, mail cart, or perambulator, 6d.

For each other package carried outside, 2d.

69. Double fare shall be allowed between 12 o'clock midnight and 7 o'clock a.m., but this shall not apply to the charge for luggage.

70. When a hackney carriage fitted with a taximeter is called but not used the hirer shall pay to the driver 6d. if the place to which he has been called is under half a mile from the stance or garage, and if beyond this distance he shall pay the fare recorded on the taximeter.

71. The driver of a hackney carriage fitted with a taximeter shall, as soon as he is hired, and no sooner, set the taximeter in motion, unless in the case of going to lift, when the driver shall not set the taximeter in motion until the free distance of not exceeding half a mile provided for under Horse-drawn Hackney Carriages, No. 1, has been covered. He shall, while engaged, have the flag of his taximeter lowered to the "hired" position, and immediately upon the termination of the hiring he shall stop the taximeter, but shall not remove the fare record from the disc thereof until the hirer has examined or has had an opportunity of examining the same.

72. In the event of the mechanism of the carriage breaking down, or in any way becoming unfit to convey the hirer to the destination for which the carriage is engaged, the driver shall not be entitled to charge any fare for the distance already travelled, provided that, should the hirer elect to wait until repairs are completed, the full fare recorded on the completion of the journey shall be exigible, less the amount of fare chargeable for waiting in accordance with the rate for waiting fixed under these bye-laws.

73. Should the taximeter record a fare which is obviously not in accordance with the distance travelled, or should the taximeter stop recording during a journey, the fare in case of dispute shall be ascertained by measurement by the Hackney Carriage Inspector.

GENERAL.

74. In all cases two children over six and under twelve years of age, shall be reckoned as one adult; but no additional charge shall be made for one such child, or for a child under six years of age.

When payment of the fare is withheld, the party withholding must give the driver his full name and address.

RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

INLAND LETTERS.

The prepaid rates of postage are as follows, viz.:—

|                                                  |                  |
|--------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| For a letter not exceeding 1 oz. . . . .         | 1d.              |
| Exceeding 1 oz., but not exceeding 2 oz. . . . . | 2d.              |
| For every additional 2 oz. . . . .               | $\frac{1}{2}$ d. |

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

Every letter should bear the name and address of the sender in order to ensure its return in case of non-delivery.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length, 1 foot in width, or 1 foot in depth, unless it be sent to or from a Government office.

POST CARDS.

Official post cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp, or reply cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion, can be bought at every Post Office.

Nothing whatever may be attached except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label not exceeding 2 inches long and  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch broad, bearing the name and address at which the card is to be delivered, and a similar label bearing the name and address of the sender; engravings, illustrations, drawings, and photographs, on very thin paper and completely adherent to the card. A post card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below 4 by 2 $\frac{3}{4}$  inches, nor may it be fastened against inspection, or enclosed in a cover of any kind. An inland post card is transmissible for abroad if the additional postage is made by postage stamps.

Cards used as post cards must be made of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the thickest official post card, and not thinner than the material used for the thinnest. They may not exceed 5 $\frac{1}{2}$  in. in length by 3 $\frac{1}{2}$  in. in width, or less than 4 in. in length by 2 $\frac{3}{4}$  in. in width.

If any of these rules be infringed, the card ceases to be a post card, and is treated as a letter, and liable to the usual charges on delivery.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, post cards may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery (unless paid for and posted as late letters).

Inland.—Post cards are sold at the rate of (thin, 5 $\frac{1}{2}$  × 3 $\frac{1}{2}$  in.; thick, 4 $\frac{1}{2}$  × 3 $\frac{1}{2}$  in.) thin  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. each, packets of 12, 6d.; thick  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. each, 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for 10; parcels of 110 stout cards, 5s.; 240 thin cards, 10s. Reply post cards are sold at the following prices:—1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. each, 10 for 11d.; thin, 1d. each, 12 for 1s.

Foreign.—Official post cards, single and reply, are transmissible to all parts of the world. Single cards are issued with impressed stamps of a 1d., and reply cards bearing stamps of the value of 1d. on each half. Inland post cards are also transmissible abroad if the additional postage required is supplied by means of postage stamps affixed to the cards on the address side. Unpaid post cards from places abroad are charged 2d. Partially paid cards are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 2d.

Private post cards bearing adhesive stamps of the value of 1d. and private reply cards with adhesive stamps of the value of 1d. on each half may be sent as post cards to places abroad, provided they are in conformity with the official post cards.

INLAND NEWSPAPERS.

For each inland newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, the postage, when prepaid, is one half-penny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate of postage than would be chargeable on an ordinary packet of printed matter of the same weight.

A newspaper or a packet of newspapers posted unpaid is charged double postage, and if posted insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

Any publication fulfilling the following conditions can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation within the United Kingdom as a newspaper.

The conditions are as follows:—

The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, or in some British possession or protectorate (including the Malay States and Cyprus), and must be published in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days.

The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication at the top of every subsequent page; and this regulation applies to 'Tables of Contents' and 'Indexes.'

A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or a piece or pieces of paper put together at some one part of the newspapers, whether gummed or stitched up with the newspapers or not; or it must wholly or in part consist of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the paper. It must in every case be published with the newspaper, and have the title of the newspaper printed at the top of every page, or at the top of every sheet, or side on which any such engraving, print, or lithograph appears. The supplement or supplements issued with any number of a registered newspaper may not exceed the newspaper itself in bulk.

Every newspaper or packet of newspapers may be posted either with or without a cover, but entirely open at both ends, and folded so as to admit of easy examination; and in order to ensure their return in case of non-delivery, the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return, must be placed on the upper left-hand corner.

A registered newspaper, or a packet of registered newspapers, must not contain any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it, otherwise such will be charged as a letter, or is transferred to the Parcel Post and charged with a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage, whichever charge is the lower.

Newspapers not registered at the G.P.O. are treated like any other printed matter.

A packet must not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, or exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

COLONIAL & FOREIGN LETTERS.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on letters for all Foreign Countries (except Egypt, the United States of America, and the places in China and Morocco where there are British Post Office Agencies) is 2½d. per ounce, and 1½d. for each succeeding ounce or fraction thereof; but to British Possessions generally (including Egypt, the United States of America, and the places in China and Morocco where there are British Post Office Agencies) the letter rate is 1d. per ounce. Dutiable articles, if sent by letter post, may be subjected to fine or confiscated if the place of destination so prescribes.

Letters posted unpaid, or paid only in part, to any country where prepayment is compulsory, are returned to the writers. Letters so posted for other countries are forwarded, but are charged on delivery with double the deficiency.

Unpaid and insufficiently prepaid letters from Egypt, the United States of America, and the British Agencies to which penny postage applies are charged double the deficient postage, but the surcharge can in no case exceed 2d. per half ounce. Unpaid and insufficiently prepaid letters from all other places are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 5d. per half ounce.

Letters not specially directed by a particular route are, as a rule, forwarded by the first mail despatched.

Letters for Russia should have the name of the town and province added in English or French.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in breadth or depth.

BOOK PACKETS.

The undermentioned articles are transmissible for a postage of one halfpenny provided that they conform to the regulations given below, and do not exceed 2 oz. in weight. For every additional 2 oz., or fraction of 2 oz., ½d. and are subject to the letter post regulations. Halfpenny packets if posted unpaid are chargeable with double postage.

The expression 'Book Packet' means a packet not exceeding 5 lbs. in weight, which consists of or contains one or more of the following articles or documents.

By way of exception the benefit of this post is extended to the documents specified below, although they may contain matter in the nature of a letter, provided they respectively conform to the following conditions:—

(b) Deeds, agreements, affidavits, orders of Court, brief from solicitor to counsel, proposals and policies of insurance, and formal papers necessarily incident to insurance, power of attorney, proxy papers, licences, voting papers, and certificates. Copies of any of the foregoing documents.

That nothing appear in the document in writing which does not form a necessary part thereof.

(c) Circulars (that is, printed notices and letters), printed visiting cards, Christmas, New Year Easter, and birthday cards.

That nothing appear in writing in the document except—

1. Dates, hours, and particulars of times.
2. The names, addresses, and descriptions of parties.
3. The particulars of goods and of sums of money.
4. The mode of consignment or delivery of goods or money.
5. The terms on which business is transacted.
6. Index or reference numbers and letters.
7. Corrections of errors in print.
8. The place, character, and objects of meetings or appointments.
9. Formulas of courtesy or of a conventional character not exceeding five words or initials.

(d) Manuscript for press and printed proofs (including information for insertion in directories and similar publications) with corrections and instructions.

That any writing not forming part of the document itself refer solely to the arrangement or correction of the type or to the execution of the work.

(e) Educational exercises and examination papers with comments, corrections, and instructions.

That any writing not forming part of the document itself refer solely to the subject-matter of the exercise or to the questions put or the answer thereto.

By "printing" is meant any species of type-printing easy to recognise, or any mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies of written matter, and easy to recognise, such as lithography and hand stamping.

Documents wholly or partly printed in imitation of typewriting, or reproduced from a type-written original by a mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies, are not admissible by the halfpenny post unless—

- (a) They are handed in at a Head or Branch Post Office. (Such documents are also accepted provisionally at Town Sub-offices and at certain of the more important Rural Sub-offices, subject to their being found to be in order when examined at the Head office, to which they will be sent);
- (b) Special attention is drawn to the fact that they are printed or reproduced in type-written characters;
- (c) At least twenty copies are posted at the same time.

* A printed form within the meaning of the regulations is one bearing printed matter clearly indicating the purpose for which the form is intended to be used. The form must be appropriate, e.g. an ordinary memorandum form may not be used.

"Writing" includes type-writing and any mechanical or other process ordinarily used to produce a single document.

There may also be transmitted by the halfpenny packet post—

- (1) Sketches, drawings, paintings, photographs, engravings, maps, plans, and charts on paper or some substance ordinarily used for the purpose, provided it be not a brittle or exceptionally fragile substance.
- (2) The binding or mounting of any article sent by the halfpenny packet post, provided it be of a kind ordinarily used for the purpose, be not made of glass or any brittle or exceptionally fragile substance, and be transmitted in the same packet with the article in respect of which it is used.
- (3) Anything necessary or convenient for the safe transmission by post of any of the above-mentioned articles.

No other article or document can be sent by the halfpenny packet post, and in particular the post cannot be used for goods, samples, or patterns unless they come within the foregoing descriptions.

Every halfpenny packet is subject to examination in the post. Every halfpenny packet must be posted either without a cover or in an unfastened envelope, or in a cover which can be easily removed for the purposes of examination without breaking any seal or tearing any paper or separating any adhering surfaces. A packet posted without a cover may not be fastened or otherwise treated so as to prevent easy examination. No halfpenny packet may contain or bear any communication in the nature of a letter, not being matter coming within the definition of such packet or being expressly allowed. No paper money may be posted or conveyed or delivered by post in a halfpenny packet. This rule does not apply to a halfpenny packet containing a stamped proxy paper, or to a halfpenny packet containing a stamped and addressed post card, wrapper, or envelope forwarded by the sender of the packet in order that such card, wrapper, or envelope may be returned through the post to such sender or some person designated by him.

If any of the rules relating to a halfpenny packet be infringed, the halfpenny packet will be treated as a letter.

Packets prepaid one halfpenny bearing on the outside the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, are delivered to the sender on payment of a second postage. Such request must be placed on the front of the packet in the upper left hand corner. Those bearing no such request are disposed of.

When, owing to an unusually heavy influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, book packets may be kept back till the next despatch or delivery.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN LETTERS, PRINTED PAPERS, AND COMMERCIAL PAPERS.

(a) Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), way bills, bills of lading, invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of insurance and other public companies, all kinds of manuscript music, the manuscript of books and other literary works, letters and post cards of old date, which have already served their original purpose, and pupils' exercises either in original or with corrections, but without any comment on the work, and other papers of a similar description.

(6) Printed Papers, including newspapers, periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music, visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing engravings, photographs, pictures, drawings, papers impressed for the use of the blind, or cardboard drawing, models stamped in relief, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, autographed, or lithographed, and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or cardboard by means of printing, lithography, autography, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, and anything not being of glass usually attached or belonging to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet.

On printed visiting cards the address or title of the sender, or conventional initials, such as 'p. p. c.' may be written, and also good wishes, congratulations, thanks, condolences, or other formulas of courtesy, expressed in not more than five words. The same rule applies to Christmas and New Year's cards, and may contain the relative invoices, and on printed circulars manuscript corrections and insertions may be made. Printers' proofs may be corrected in manuscript, as may also figures in prices current, stock and share lists, etc. Books, papers, music, photographs, and engravings may have a dedication inscribed on them, and the invoice relating to them may be enclosed.

Postage stamps, whether obliterated or not, and all printed articles constituting the sign of a monetary value, are, however, excluded from transmission by this post to countries in the Postal Union.

The products of the copying press and typewriter are not admitted at the rate for printed papers; nor as a rule are printed papers, the text of which has been modified after printing either by hand or mechanical process, unless they comply with the foregoing rules.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on printed papers for all places abroad is  $\frac{1}{4}$ d. per 2 oz. The postage on commercial papers is  $\frac{1}{4}$ d. for the first 10 oz., and  $\frac{1}{4}$ d. per 2 oz. thereafter. If not fully prepaid, double the deficiency will be charged on delivery; if unpaid, they will be stopped.

Printed papers from places abroad, of which the postage is insufficiently prepaid, will be charged on delivery with double the deficient postage within a limit of a 1d. per 2 oz.; and on insufficiently paid commercial papers the charge to be made will not exceed 5d. up to 10 oz., and 1d. per 2 oz. for heavier weights.

Commercial and printed papers may be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in an ordinary letter envelope left wholly unfastened, or in a cover entirely open at both ends so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string which can be easily unfastened.

All books and printed matter imported into the United States through the Post, however small the value, are subject to a duty of 15 per cent. ad valorem, except periodicals and newspapers already exempt from duty, photographs, and printed papers other than books, received in such small quantities as to suggest that they are for personal use and not for sale.

Books and periodicals addressed to the Republic of Colombia are liable to Customs duties, unless intended for the personal use of the addressee. Books, whether bound or unbound, addressed to Uruguay, are liable to Customs duties unless the whole value of those sent to one addressee is less than 100 francs (£4). Any number of books may be imported into Venezuela if they treat of science, arts, or trades.

Bound books sent to Portugal by post are subject to Customs duty. The wrapper should bear an indication of the nature of the contents, and the words 'en douane.'

The limits of size for packets for the British Colonies or Possessions or to non-Union countries or colonies are 24 x 12 x 12 inches. Printed papers and commercial papers to foreign countries in the Postal Union the length is limited to 1½ feet by 1 foot. If in the form of a roll the limits of size in either case are 30 x 4 in. To British Colonies or Possessions, and non-Union countries or colonies, the limits of weight are 5 lb.; and for foreign countries in the Postal Union, 4 lb.

In Italy newspapers, periodicals, and illustrated journals, also separate printed sheets (such as notices, circulars, proofs, sheets of music, etc.), must not weigh more than 1000 grammes (2 lbs. 3½ oz.).

In Belgium books, newspapers, periodicals, maps, charts, printed music, prints, and artistic engravings and lithographs are allowed to be imported by post; but other printed papers may only be sent singly or in small quantities.

In France playing cards, engravings, prints, drawings, packets of pictorial post-cards, and all articles of mercantile value are prohibited.

In Spain all books received by post are liable to the ordinary Customs duties.

In Canada advertising pamphlets, circulars, all catalogues and price lists (except single copies addressed to merchants and not designed to advertise the sale of goods by any person in Canada), etc., are liable to Customs duty.

In Australia advertising matter, including catalogues, price lists, etc., is liable to Customs duty at the rate of 8d. per lb. if manufactured in the United Kingdom; manufactured elsewhere, 10d.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN SAMPLE POST.

The use of the Sample Post to the colonies and foreign countries generally is restricted to bonâ fide trade samples of merchandise. Packets containing goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually trade samples or scientific specimens, cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

The postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom is 1d. for the first 4 oz., and  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per 2 oz. thereafter. Insufficiently paid packets are forwarded to places abroad, but are charged on delivery with double the deficiency. If unpaid, they will be stopped. Insufficiently paid packets from places abroad will be charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 2d. up to 4 oz., and of 1d. per 2 oz. for heavier weights.

Samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination. But samples of seeds, drugs, and suchlike articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

There must be no writing or printing upon or in any packet for non-Union countries except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles, the weight or size and the quantity to be disposed of, or such as may be necessary to indicate the place of origin or the nature of the merchandise. A sample for a country in the Postal Union may contain, besides these particulars, any printed papers, and, if the rate applicable to commercial papers be paid, it may also contain commercial papers.

Special Regulations as to certain articles.—Though under the regulations of the Postal Union the public are not entitled to send articles liable to Customs duty by any other post than the Parcel Post, this rule is relaxed according to the internal laws of the various Union Countries. In the United Kingdom, incoming samples liable to Customs duty are, as a general rule, not objected to when sent in quantities so small as to have practically no saleable value; but no guarantee can be given that outgoing samples will be delivered in the country of destination without payment of Customs duty, or that they will be delivered at all. Outgoing packets of samples of tea are, in general, admissible in the country of destination, if they do not weigh more than eight ounces. The importation of tobacco by Sample Post into the United Kingdom is prohibited, with the sole exception of packets of type samples of unmanufactured tobacco not exceeding six ounces in weight, which are delivered on payment of 1s. 6d. Customs duty.

Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, may be sent, provided that they are bona fide samples without saleable value, and are packed and guarded so as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined. Packets containing liquids, glass, greasy substances, colouring powders, and live bees can be sent by sample post from the United Kingdom to countries in the Postal Union. Deleterious liquids or substances may be sent abroad for medical examination or analysis by sample post only. Explosives are absolutely prohibited.

A packet or samples sent to any British Colony or Possession or non-Union country, must not exceed  $24 \times 12 \times 12$  in., but to any foreign place comprised in the Postal Union a packet must not exceed  $12 \times 8 \times 4$  in., unless it be in the form of a roll, in which case the limit of size is  $12 \times 6$  in.

The limit of weight for packets of samples for British Colonies or Possessions, or for non-Union countries, is, as a rule, 5 lb., but for foreign countries in the Postal Union the limit is 12 oz.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

In order that a packet may go by Parcel Post, it must be tendered for transmission as a parcel, and should bear the words 'Parcel Post' clearly written in the left-hand top corner. It is also desirable that a parcel should bear the name and address of the sender on the cover, but not in such a position as to be mistaken for the address of the parcel. The parcel should not be left until the weight, size, and postage have been tested by the officer who accepts it.

The size allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel is—Greatest length, 3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined, 6 ft. 0 in.

For example:—A parcel measuring 3 ft. 6 in. in its longest dimension, may measure as much as 2 ft. 6 in. in girth, or, if shorter, may be thicker.

The rates of postage are—

|-----------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Not exceeding 1 lb. in weight,                            | 4d.  |
| Exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 2 lbs.,                 | 5d.  |

| " 10      "      "      "      "      "      "      "     | 1s.  |

No parcel may exceed 11 lbs. in weight.

The postage must be paid in advance, by means of postage stamps, which should be affixed by the sender. In posting a parcel it should be handed over the counter, and care taken to let the officer who accepts it know that it is intended for transmission by Parcel Post. In no case should the parcel be posted in a letter-box.

In order to secure compensation for an unregistered parcel, a certificate of posting should be obtained by the sender. (As to certificates for registered parcels, see under registration and compensation, p. 1114.)

The prohibitions against the sending by post of anything indecent, or obscene print, painting, or photograph, or explosive, any noxious or deleterious substance, or any sharp instrument not properly protected, or of any living creature, except bees, on condition that they are sent in suitable cases, and so packed as to avoid all risk of injury to officers of the Post Office or to other packets.

China, crockery, eggs, fruit, fish, meat, etc., which may not be sent by Letter Post, may be sent by Parcel Post, if packed with special care. Liquids or semi-liquids, such as jellies, pickles, paint, varnish, etc., must be put into bottles or cases securely stoppered. Any parcel containing eggs, or fragile, or perishable contents, should be conspicuously marked 'Eggs,' or 'Fragile—with care,' or 'Perishable.'

If a packet bearing the words 'Parcel Post' is not posted in accordance with the regulations, it is treated as a letter or book packet, if it is fully prepaid at the rate proper to either, and is otherwise in accordance with the letter post regulations; but if not fully prepaid at the letter post rate, it will be treated as a parcel, and charged on delivery with a fine of 1d., together with the deficient postage, if any, at the Parcel rate.

A Customs declaration must be made in the case of parcels for the Channel Islands.

To offices where letters may be addressed 'to be called for,' parcels may also be so addressed. Such parcels are kept for three weeks. At the end of which period, if not called for, they are returned to the sender.

Inland Parcels.—For a parcel which is not registered the Postmaster-General will accept liability up to £2, without payment of any fee, provided that the parcel is posted in the manner prescribed for the posting of parcels by the regulations for the time being, and a certificate of posting is obtained from the officer receiving the parcel, and produced when required. The certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to the officer, who will sign and return it to him. The parcel must be packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PARCEL POST.

The rules as to prepayment, method of address, and posting are the same as with inland parcels.

Customs Declaration and Duties.—Parcels are liable to Customs regulations and duties, and the sender of a parcel is required to make a Customs declaration furnishing—upon a special form provided for the purpose—an accurate statement of the contents and value and other particulars. The declaration form should, if possible, be filled up in both English and French. Customs duties will be collected on delivery. In addition to Customs duties, a charge of 6d. per parcel for stamp duty, clearance, etc., is levied on all dutiable parcels entering the South African Union. And for Southern Rhodesia the charge is from 6d. to 1s. according to value, and a charge of 1s. on all parcels entering Northern Rhodesia. In Honduras and Salvador the fee is 1 centavo for each 4 oz., with a minimum of 5 centavos. On parcels for British East Africa, including Uganda, insurance is confined to parcels for Entebbe, Jinja, Kampala, Kisumu, Nairobi, Nakuru, Mombasa, and Lamu.

Parcels for the Argentine Republic are subject to a fiscal charge under the National Stamp Act.

Parcels for Cape of Good Hope, Natal, Orange River Colony, Rhodesia, North and South, Transvaal, Bechuanaland, and uninsured parcels for Egypt and Zanzibar, may not exceed £50 in value.

Delivery of Parcels.—In many Colonies and foreign countries parcels are not, like letters, delivered at the residences of the addressees. Notice of the arrival of a parcel is sent to the addressee, who must then claim the parcel at the Post Office, Railway Station, or Custom House where it is lying.

In Belgium, France, and Spain parcels are delivered by the Railway Companies, and not by the Post Office; and parcels intended to be called for should not be addressed to a Poste Restante in those countries, but to a Railway Station (en gare).

Insurance of Colonial Parcels.—Parcels to or from certain British Colonies and Possessions are accepted for insurance. The names of the places may be learned at any Post Office.

The fee for insurance, including registration, is 4d. for £12, up to a limit of 5s. 10d. for £400; and for the United States 6d. for £12, up to a limit of 5s. for £120.

Re-direction and Return of Parcels.—Parcels arriving in this country and re-directed from one address to another in the United Kingdom are liable to additional postage at the Inland Rate for each re-direction, except where the original and the second address are both within the delivery of the same post office.

If a parcel cannot be delivered as addressed, or is refused, the sender, if his address be given on the parcel or on the forms which accompany the parcel, is communicated with by the Post Office as to the manner in which the parcel shall be disposed of.

If returned or re-directed from one country to another, the parcel will be charged a full rate of postage.

A parcel should be properly packed and sealed by the sender, so that it cannot be opened without breaking the seal.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF LETTERS AND PARCELS.

The following services are provided by the Post Office:—

1. Express throughout (Local Service).

The charge is 3d. for every mile or part of a mile from the Office of delivery to the address. On packets weighing more than 1 lb. a weight fee of 3d. is charged, together with a further fixed charge of 1d. for each article beyond one. If the sender desires, a cab or other special conveyance may be used throughout, the actual fare or cost of the conveyance must be paid in addition to the mileage fee. The weight fee is not charged in such a case.

All charges must be prepaid in postage stamps, to be affixed to a form provided by the Post Office, and should be handed in over the counter, or to an officer authorised to receive it. In no case may it be placed in a letter box.

A reply is charged for at the same rates, unless it be taken to an address on the messenger's homeward route or within half a mile of his office, in which case only half the mileage fee is charged.

2. Express delivery after transmission by ordinary mail.

Letters, parcels, etc., posted in the ordinary way can, when the sender so desires, be delivered by express messenger from the Head Office or office of destination immediately on their arrival. The fee is, as in the previous case, 3d. per mile or part of a mile in addition to the ordinary postage. The words 'Express Delivery' must be boldly and legibly written on the cover, and in the case of a letter the cover must be marked with a broad perpendicular line from top to bottom both on front and back.

Letters may be delivered by special messenger in London on Sunday mornings, provided that each letter is prepaid with an express fee at the rate of 3d. a mile or part of a mile, calculated from the General Post Office, and that the cover is marked with the words 'Express Delivery on Sunday,' in addition to a perpendicular line.

3. Express delivery at request of addressee.

The addressees of letters and parcels not marked for Express Delivery may have them delivered by special messenger in advance of the ordinary delivery by postman, on making application in proper time on a form provided for the purpose and prepaying the usual express fee of 3d. per mile on the first packet and a further fixed charge of 1d. for every additional ten or less number of packets.

Any subscriber to a Telephone Exchange may telephone messages to any Post Office which can be reached through the local Exchange system, or by means of the Post Office trunk wires, in order that the messages may be written down and forwarded as telegrams, or express letters or ordinary letters. Public telephones, call offices, or private telephones to Post Offices, may also be used in this way, he can also in this way summon a messenger for the express delivery of letters or parcels.

Local Service.—At the General Post Office, and at the undermentioned Branch and Sub-Offices, letters, parcels, etc., are accepted for immediate delivery by Express Messenger in any part of Edinburgh and Leith or suburbs, see page 1106.

From the General Post Office, Edinburgh, delivery is effected at all hours day and night, except between 11.30 p.m. on Saturdays and midnight on Sundays. From 10 p.m. till 7 a.m. on week days letters should be handed in at the North Bridge entrance.

Letters, etc., for Express Delivery from the General Post Office, may also be handed in at any of the other Local Offices, but the delivery will be less expeditious in these cases, inasmuch as the articles have first to be conveyed by ordinary collection to the G.P.O., from which they are expressed to destination. Thus an express letter or parcel handed in at Fountain-bridge Post Office before 9.50 a.m. will reach the G.P.O. at 10.30 a.m., and delivery by Express Messenger will immediately follow.

The Express Service may also be used for obtaining letters in advance of the ordinary deliveries by Postmen.

Single Letters conveyed by Railway.—Railway letters not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, for transmission by train or steamship, may be handed in to any post office from which express delivery is made, for immediate conveyance to the railway stations, at the above rates.

CONVEYANCE OF SINGLE POST LETTER BY RAILWAY.

Certain Railway Companies have entered into agreement with the Postmaster-General to accept and convey by the next available train or steamboat single inland post letters, not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address or to be transferred there to the nearest post office letter box for delivery by postman. The letter must be taken to the parcel booking office, and when that office is shut to the passenger booking office. The charge for such a letter is 3d.—postage stamp 1d., and 2d in cash to the Railway Company.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

ADDRESSES AND PETITIONS TO THE KING AND PARLIAMENT.

Petitions and addresses to the King, forwarded direct or through a member of either House of Parliament, are exempt from postage. Petitions to members of either House so addressed are also exempt, provided they do not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, and, sent without covers, or in covers open at the ends. This exemption applies only to an original signed petition or address, and not to any copy thereof.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

Printed votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent in open covers, having the words 'Parliamentary Proceedings' written or printed thereon, are subject to no limits of size and weight, and are liable only to a rate of  $\frac{1}{4}$ d. for every 2 oz., whether prepaid or not.

PARLIAMENTARY AND MUNICIPAL REGISTRATION NOTICES, JURY SUMMONSES.

Particulars as to the conditions under which these documents may be served by post may be obtained from the Secretary, General Post Office, or from the Postmaster at any Head Post Office.

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SOLDIERS AND SEAMEN IN H.M. SERVICE.

Letters, etc., for the officers and crew of H.M. Ships are, as a rule, forwarded in accordance with lists of addresses furnished from time to time by the Admiralty, and should be addressed H.M.S. (name of ship), c/o G.P.O., London, E.C.

The postage payable on letters addressed to H.M. ships abroad is 1d. per oz., and the same postage is payable in British stamps on letters sent in the bags made up on board H.M. ships.

Letters, etc., for commissioned officers in the army or navy are liable to the same rates of postage as those for the general public.

Non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters, school-mistresses, private soldiers, seamen, writers in H.M. Navy, whether serving on sea or land, at home or abroad, the Cape Mounted Rifles, and enrolled pensioners in Canada, can send and receive prepaid letters, not exceeding half an ounce, for a postage of 1d.

The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction, and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs, the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

From A. B., Sergeant, etc., — Regt. ———
(Here the direction of the letter to be inserted.)
C. D., Colonel (or other Commanding Officer),
— Regt. ———

To A. B.,
Private (or Sergeant, Corporal, etc.) — Regt. ———
(Here the direction to be finished.)

If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom, unpaid or insufficiently prepaid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not given, it will be returned to the writer for payment of the postage.

FOR PASSENGERS ON BOARD MAIL PACKETS.

Special arrangements are made for the delivery of letters addressed to passengers on board the Union Castle Company's packets for the Cape, etc., sailing from London, the packets for the United States sailing from Liverpool, the Canadian packets sailing from Liverpool and Glasgow, the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's packets for Brazil, etc., sailing from Liverpool, the Peninsular and Oriental packets from Marseilles with mails for Egypt, connecting at Port Said with the packet for India, Australia, China, etc. and the Orient packets from Toulon with mails for Australia,—such letters may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received; but they must be registered (but cannot be accepted for insurance) and fully prepaid, and addressed to the 'care of the commander of the packet.'

The letter should be addressed thus—Mr. — on board the mail packet — for — at London, Liverpool, Glasgow, or Marseilles, care of the commander of the packet.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, ETC.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets can only be prepaid by means of postage stamps, except at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, where inland letters, post cards, book packets, and parcels may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be not less than £1, and that the letters and halfpenny packets be tied in separate bundles of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

Letters, etc., must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

The fee chargeable for registration to places abroad is 2d.; and to some foreign countries a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival, it being left in those cases to the postal authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the registration or not as they may think proper. Coin, jewellery, or precious articles may not be sent through the post to certain countries of the Postal Union; no letters or packets addressed to those countries and containing such articles can be accepted for registration.

No letter or postal packet addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered, unless addressed to the care of a person or firm. Every article presented for registration should be enclosed in a strong cover securely fastened.

Every letter, etc., to be registered must be given to an officer of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If an article marked 'registered' be dropped into the letter-box, directed to any place in the United Kingdom, it will be liable to a registration fee of 4d. (less any amount prepaid for registration), instead of the ordinary fee, and if posted containing coin, watches, or jewellery without being registered, will be treated in like manner.

The sender of an inland registered letter or packet may obtain an acknowledgment of its due delivery by paying at the time of posting, or subsequently, an additional fee of 2d., and filling up the necessary form, and should a like acknowledgment be desired for a letter addressed to a foreign country or British colony in the Postal Union, a fee of 2½d. is required.

Registered letters require to be posted at General Post Office thirty minutes, and at the sub-offices fifteen minutes before the closing of the box for ordinary letters; but upon payment of a late fee of 4d. they may be registered at General Post Office until the closing of the letter-box for ordinary letters for each dispatch.

The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure, as it can be traced through its whole course; and thus the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless,

LETTERS BY PRIVATE SHIPS.

Letters intended to be sent by private ship must be addressed 'By Private Ship'; and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added. The postage of a letter by a private ship is the same as by mail packet.

large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, as the machinery of the department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered, valuable articles are exposed to risk.

INLAND REGISTRATION AND COMPENSATION.

The ordinary registration fee for each inland letter, parcel, or other postal packet is 2d.

The Postmaster-General will (not in consequence of any legal liability, but voluntarily, and as an act of grace), subject to the rules for the time being, give compensation up to a maximum limit of £5 for the loss and damage of Inland Registered Packets upon which this fee has been paid, in addition to the postage. Subject to the same rules he will grant compensation beyond £5, and up to a limit of £400, upon payment of a fee in addition to the postage and the ordinary registration fee. These fees (which in each case include the ordinary registration fee of 2d.), and the respective limits of compensation, are as follows:—3d. on £20, 4d. on £40, and so on at the rate of 1d. for every additional £20, up to a limit of 1s. 10d. for £400.

RULES.

Posting and Packing.

The postal packet must be posted in accordance with the rules for the time being, and a certificate of posting, bearing thereon an acknowledgment that the fee for registration and compensation has been paid, must be obtained.

The contents of the postal packet must be packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover, and if it be desired to secure compensation for damage to a postal packet (other than a parcel), such postal packet must bear the words 'Fragile, with Care,' on the face of the cover above the address.

The packet must be marked with the word 'Registered,' and, when the fee exceeds 2d., with the amount of the fee proper to the value up to which the sender desires to secure compensation, thus:—

Registered, 3d.; Registered, 4d.; and so on.

The registered Parcel Post will be available for watches and jewellery. Money may also be sent in a registered parcel, but compensation will only be given in those cases in which the money is enclosed in a Registered Letter envelope, and tendered for transmission by Registered Letter Post.

General Conditions.

No compensation either for loss or damage will be given in respect of a postal packet containing anything not legally transmissible by post; or a packet not posted in the manner prescribed.

Compensation given in respect of the loss or damage of coin shall not in the case of any letter exceed the sum of £5, and must be enclosed in one of the Registered Letter envelopes sold by the Post Office, and the packet is tendered for transmission by Registered Letter Post.

No compensation will be given in respect of damage to a postal packet containing eggs, soft fruit, or any liquid or semi-liquid; or containing any article of an exceptionally fragile character, or any other article which from its nature cannot with reasonable safety be sent by post; or containing a perishable article where the damage arises from natural decay, and the postal packet is delivered without undue delay; or which is not marked 'Fragile, with Care.'

Where a postal packet (other than a parcel) is marked 'Fragile, with Care,' may be slightly delayed in transit, as it may be diverted from the quickest to some other route to ensure greater safety.

In every case it must appear that the loss or damage did not arise wholly or in part by the fault of the sender, and that it occurred while the postal packet was in the post.

The compensation given will in no case exceed the value of the article lost or the damage sustained. The right is reserved of reinstating the contents of a packet instead of giving pecuniary compensation.

In no case will the Postmaster-General give compensation for injury or damage consequential upon—i.e. indirectly arising from the loss, damage, or delay, non-delivery, or mis-delivery of anything sent by post.

Where the application relates to the damage of the packet, or to the damage or loss of any article contained therein, the packet should be retained for inspection as nearly as possible in the state in which it was delivered. When the complaint is that the contents have been abstracted, the envelope must accompany the application.

This scheme of registration and compensation does not apply to Foreign and Colonial registered postal packets.

The several Postal Administrations of the countries belonging to the Postal Union undertake to pay an indemnity of fifty francs in the event of its being proved to their satisfaction that a registered letter itself has been lost whilst in their custody, but no question of compensation is entertained by them for, or in respect of, the loss of the enclosure of any such letter.

No town postman is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but rural postmen can do so on their walks.

Without prejudice to any of the preceding rules, the Postmaster-General will, if he thinks fit, refuse to give compensation for loss or damage on any ground on which a common carrier might in like case claim exemption from legal liability.

The final decision upon all questions of compensation rest with the Postmaster General.

Definition of Terms.

The term 'postal packet' means and includes any letter packet, post card, halfpenny packet, book, newspaper, parcel, or other article transmissible by the Post in accordance with the regulations in force for the time being. The term 'money' means and includes coin and paper money. The term 'coin' means and includes coin of all kinds whether or not current in the United Kingdom or elsewhere. The term 'paper money' means and includes notes of the Bank of England and Ireland or of any bank of issue in the United Kingdom, and notes current in any Foreign State or British Possession: money orders and postal orders; unobliterated postage or revenue stamps; exchequer bills, bank post bills, bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques, credit-notes which entitle the holder to money or goods, and all orders and authorities for the payment of money, whether negotiable or not; bonds, coupons, and securities for money, whether negotiable or not. The term 'watch,' the cases of which are entirely or mainly composed of gold or silver, and any article of a like nature which, apart from the workmanship, has an intrinsic or marketable value. The term 'jewellery' means and includes gold or silver in a manufactured state, that is to say, a state in which value is added to the raw material by skilled workmanship; and in this definition are included any coins used or designed for purposes of ornament; diamonds and precious stones. The term 'United Kingdom' includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

RE-DIRECTION.

Letters, halfpenny packets, post cards, and newspapers, are not liable to additional postage for re-direction, whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided that the letters are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened, but if re-posted later than the day after delivery are charged at the prepaid rate. Any which appear to have been opened will be charged as unpaid letters or packets.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter at the second address.

Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction. But re-directed parcels are not subjected to additional postage if the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office, and that the re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction allowed for other classes of correspondence.

A registered letter or packet, when re-directed, should be taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter. No additional registration fee will be charged if the correspondence is presented for re-registration not later than one day after delivery; but if it is presented after that time it will be treated as freshly posted, and a fresh registration fee will be payable.

Notices of removal and applications for re-direction of letters, etc., must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed; printed forms of notice can be obtained at the local office and the General Post Office, or from the postman. A separate notice must be filled up for parcels and telegrams. Persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention.

The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, etc., for a person temporarily leaving his home, unless the house be left uninhabited, or of letters, etc., addressed to clubs, hotels, boarding-houses, or lodgings; or addressed to any premises occupied by two or more persons where the letters are delivered by postman into a common letter box or to a common agent.

Foreign and Colonial.—The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, etc., which, though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign country or colony and re-directed to the United Kingdom. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to the ordinary charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

Registered letters on being re-directed may not be dropped into a letter box, but must be taken to a Post Office to be dealt with as registered. Parcels arriving in this country and re-directed from one address to another in the United Kingdom are liable to additional postage at the inland rate for each re-direction.

Letters for commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers, private soldiers, or seamen in the army or navy, on actual service, are exempt from any charge for re-direction, and also to the usual regulations as to time of re-posting. Letters, etc., returned to the senders that they may rectify or complete the address, are not, when re-posted, treated as re-directed, but as liable to fresh postage.

No person living within the town free delivery, unless he rent a private box, can obtain his letters at the General Post Office.

Private Boxes and Bags.—The fee for a private box is £3. 3s. per annum; and if for a private bag, £1. 1s. additional; and if for parcels, an additional fee; for delivery from one address to another (removal excepted), 2s.; and for private delivery of registered letters only, a fee of 10s. 6d. a year.

STAMPS (POSTAGE AND INLAND REVENUE).

Postage stamps (also available for telegrams) are of the respective values of  $\frac{1}{4}$ d., 1d.,  $1\frac{1}{2}$ d., 2d.,  $2\frac{1}{2}$ d., 3d., 4d., 5d., 6d., 7d., 8d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., 10s., and £1.

Books of Stamps.—Books containing eighteen 1d. and twelve  $\frac{3}{4}$ d. stamps are on sale at all money order offices at the rate of 2s. each.

Stamped telegraph book 10s., interleaved 2d. extra. The form and stamps should then be handed in at any Money Order Office and an acknowledgment obtained. Prohibited articles, if tendered for transmission, will be refused, or, if detected in transit, detained. They are liable to be dealt with in such manner as the Postmaster General may direct, and the sender is in some cases liable to prosecution.

The transmission by post of any postal packet containing any advertisement or ticket relating to a lottery at home or abroad, or any advertisement of a betting house at home or abroad, or any advertisement issued by or on behalf of any person at home or abroad offering to tell fortunes, is also prohibited.

The transmission by letter post of coin, gold, silver, precious stones, jewellery, etc., is prohibited in most countries; for further particulars see P.O. Guide.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a post office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter, parcel, or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorised to demand it; and when money is paid at a post office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded. This rule does not apply to parcels.

If a letter be forwarded under cover to any postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words 'posted at ———, under cover, to the Postmaster of ———.'

To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house door.

Every address should be legible and complete, and every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found.

Letters which cannot be delivered, bearing the full name and address of the sender, printed or written upon the outside, is returned direct and unopened. Others are sent to the Returned Letter Office, and returned, if possible, to the sender, unless addressed, 'to be called for,' when they are retained one fortnight, and if addressed to a ship, two months before being returned.

MONEY ORDERS.

Money Orders are issued and paid at General Post Office, from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.; at Branch and Sub Offices, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

When applying for Money Orders, the public should use the printed Requisition Form, which is supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices, and should state thereon as fully as possible the name, title, or designation, as the case may be, of the payee.

The commission on Inland Money Orders is:—

|                           |      |
|---------------------------|------|
| For sums not exceeding £1 | 2d.  |
| Above £1                  | 3d.  |
| „ 3                       | 10   |
| „ 30                      | 4d.  |
| „ 40                      | 10d. |

No single Money Order can be issued for a sum exceeding £40.

No Order may contain a fractional part of a 1d.

An ordinary Money Order when issued is handed by the postmaster to the remitter to be transmitted by him to the payee, and a separate advice is sent from the Issuing Office to the Paying Office, containing information as to the amount and as to the name of the payee and of the remitter. Unless the order be presented through a bank, the person presenting it for payment must furnish the remitter's name for comparison with the advice.

If, when an Order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank), it is properly receipted, and the name of the remitter, as furnished by the applicant, is in agreement with the advice, it will be paid, unless the Postmaster has good reason for believing that the applicant is neither the payee nor his agent.

The remitter of an Order payable in the United Kingdom may request to be informed when the Order has been paid, in such case he must apply at the office of issue, either at the time of issue of the Order, or subsequently, and pay a fee of 2d. The issuing postmaster will then arrange for an advice of payment to be sent to the remitter.

The remitter of an order to be paid in the United Kingdom may request at the time of issue that the order be crossed like a cheque, thus,

'——— & Co.,' in order that it may be paid only through a bank. In the case of crossed orders the remitter may, at his pleasure, give or withhold the payee's name or description.

The holder of an inland Money Order may direct, by crossing it, that it be paid through a bank, even although not originally intended.

If the remitter of a Money Order issued and payable in the United Kingdom is desirous of delaying payment for any period not exceeding ten days, he must, at the time of the issue of the order, fill up and sign the request printed at the foot of the Money Order, and inform the postmaster, in order that a note may be made on the order and advice for the information of the office of payment.

Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

At the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order if still unpaid becomes legally void; nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a deduction of 6d., is entertained.

After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the postmaster-general is not liable to any further claim, nor is he liable to pay compensation for loss or injury arising out of delay in payment of a Money Order, or out of any other irregularity in connection with an order.

Immediate payment of a Money Order on presentation is not guaranteed; and delay is possible, especially in the case of orders for large amounts drawn on small offices.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order in transmission through the post, a duplicate is granted free of charge on a written application giving particulars to the Controller of the Money Order Office in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be, where the original order was issued. Should an order be lost by the remitter or payee, an additional commission of 6d. (which should be forwarded in postage stamps with the application for a duplicate order) will be charged. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, a notice, in which 4d. commission in postage stamps must be enclosed, must be sent to the office where the order is payable. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order be required, application, accompanied by a 1d. postage stamp, must be made by the remitter to the postmaster of the office at which the order was issued. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application enclosing the order must be made to the postmaster at whose office the order is payable, who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission. Proper printed forms for making applications in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the payment of a fresh commission has been rendered necessary by the fault of an officer of the Post Office, the charge will be remitted.

If payment of an order be refused in consequence of the replies to the questions respecting the remitter, or the signature on the order, not corresponding with the entries in the advice, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing postmaster.

Money Orders for amounts not exceeding £40 are issued, free of charge, in favour of 'The Commissioners of Inland Revenue,' when required for the remittance of Beer Duty, Corporation Duty, Income Tax, Inhabited House Duty, Land Tax, Land Value Duties, Increment Value Duty, Reversion Duty, Undeveloped Land Duty, Mineral Rights' Duty, or Excise Duties, or Legacy, Succession, and Death Duties, Probate and Estate Duty. Hackney Carriage or Hackney Motor Licences. The official notice to pay must, in each case, be presented for inspection when the order is applied for.

Telegraph Money Orders (Inland).

Money may be transmitted by Telegraph Money Order between all Offices authorised to transact Telegraph and Money Order business, with the exception that at those Offices which forward but do not deliver Telegrams, Telegraph Money Orders can be issued but not paid.

The hours for the issue and payment of Telegraph Money Orders is 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

No single Telegraph Money Order can be issued for a greater amount than £40.

The charges for Inland Telegraph Money Orders are as follows:—

1. A Money Order poundage at the ordinary rate for Inland Money Orders.

2. A charge for the official telegram of advice to the office of payment at the ordinary rate for inland telegrams, the minimum being 9d.

3. A supplementary fee of 2d. for each Order.

The Telegraph charges only cover the cost of transmitting the official telegram of advice to the postmaster of the office of payment, and its repetition. Any telegraphic communication which the remitter may wish to despatch to the payee with regard to the order must be paid for at the ordinary inland rate.

In order to avoid any misunderstanding, the remitter when filling up the printed form of requisition, should state clearly whether the order is to be called for at the Post Office or delivered at the payee's address.

If the order is to be kept at the paying office till called for, he should write the name of the paying office in the space provided and give the payee's address as 'Post Office.' He should inform the payee of the despatch of the order and the name of the Post Office at which he must apply for it, unless this is already known to the payee.

If the order is to be delivered at the payee's address, the remitter must furnish on the form of requisition a sufficient address. The person applying for payment must in all cases furnish the name of the remitter, and if the order is addressed 'to be called for' at the Post Office, he must also produce evidence of his identity.

Repayment or transfer of a Telegraph Money Order may be obtained upon application being made either by the remitter or payee to the Postmaster of the office of payment, provided that the Order be enclosed in the application, or be lying at Postmaster's Office.

In other respects, Telegraph Money Orders are subject to the regulations which govern the transmission of ordinary Money Orders.

Telegraph Money Orders (Foreign).

The charges for Orders issued in the United Kingdom are as follows:—

A Money Order commission at the ordinary rate for Foreign Money Orders.

A charge for the Telegram of Advice at the ordinary rate for telegrams to the country of payment.

The remitter is allowed, on paying for the additional words required, to add to the Official Telegram of Advice any short communication which he may wish to send to the payee.

The remitter may also obtain an advice of payment, on paying a fee of 2½d.

The general regulations relating to Foreign Orders and Inland Telegraph Orders apply, so far as they are applicable, to Telegraph Orders exchanged with foreign countries.

The limit of amount for a single Order is for some countries £20, for others £30, and for others again £40.

2. A certificate of issue, in which case payment will be made by means of an Order which will be issued by the postal administration abroad.

For full particulars, see P.O. Guide.

As the advices of Orders drawn on places abroad have to be examined in the Money Order Department, London, before the particulars are advised to the paying country, such Orders should be taken out a day (or, in remote places, two days) before the dates fixed for the despatch of the mails.

The currency in which payment is made, the rate of conversion from sterling, when necessary, and the poundage, if any, deducted in cases where payment in the country of destination is arranged through the medium of another country. Particulars of which can be seen in any Post Office.

Payment is subject to the regulations of the country of payment. In foreign countries the payee may be, and generally is, required to produce documentary evidence of his identity before payment is made.

Orders issued Abroad for Payment in the United Kingdom.—The payees of Orders issued in the various British possessions (excepting Egypt and the Sudan, India, Aden, Ceylon, Federated Malay States, and the Nyassaland Protectorate), in France, and at certain French Postal Agencies outside France, Hawaii, Porto Rico, the United States, and by the British Post Offices in Panama and Tangier, should receive the Orders direct from the remitters. Orders representing remittances from Post Offices in Morocco other than Tangier should reach the payees from the Tangier Post Office, where the Orders are issued.

The advices of these Orders have to be examined in the Money Order Department, London, and some little delay in payment may thus occur.

In all other cases the payee will receive Orders issued by the Money Order Department, London, from the particulars supplied by the country of origin.

Tables of conversion showing the equivalents in British money of the amounts of Orders issued in places abroad can be learned at any Post Office.

Transfer of Payment.—Postmasters in this country have power to transfer to other Offices in the United Kingdom payment of Foreign and Colonial Money Orders originally drawn on their own Offices. Forms of application for transfer of payment are obtainable at all Money Order Offices.

Applications for duplicates of Money Orders payable in the United Kingdom should be made to the Controller of the Money Order Department, London, and should be accompanied by a fee of 6d. in postage stamps.

With the exceptions of France and Algeria, and the British Post Offices in Morocco and Panama, duplicates of Money Orders payable in places abroad are issued by the Chief Office of the country of payment on application by the payee.

In the exceptional cases duplicate orders are issued in London.

Those marked thus * in the following list denote that the certificates of issue should be retained by the remitters. The payees will receive payment on Orders issued by the postal administrations abroad.

In the case of all other countries an Order will be handed to the remitter to be transmitted by him to the payee.

POSTAL ORDERS.

Postal Orders are issued and paid at most post offices in the United Kingdom.

The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the poundage payable in respect of each order:—

|                          |            |
|--------------------------|------------|
| 6d. up to 15s. . . . .   | 1d. each.  |
| 15s. 6d. ,, 21s. . . . . | 1½d. each. |

Broken amounts, whether the order is made payable in the United Kingdom or elsewhere (excepting Canada), may be made up by affixing postage stamps not exceeding 5d., and not exceeding three in number, to the face of the order.

The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and is recommended to fill in the name of the office of payment as a precaution in case the order should be lost or stolen. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

Every person obtaining a Postal Order should tear off and retain the counterfoil. Its production will facilitate inquiry if the order should be lost.

If a Postal Order be crossed, payment will only be made through a banker, and if the name of a banker is added, payment will only be made through that banker.

A Postal Order presented by or through a banker for payment will not (in the absence of an express arrangement between such banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such order has been examined at the Chief Office in London.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the order is cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, a Postal Order will be payable only on payment of a commission equal to the original poundage; and the commission thus paid must be affixed in postage stamps on the back of the order. Postal Orders presented for payment more than six months after the month of issue are not paid until reference has been made to the Chief Office in London.

Postal Order business is transacted during the hours at which postage stamps can be purchased.

British Postal Orders are paid at certain offices in Canada, but are not issued in Canada.

Remittances to the Colonies, and to other places abroad, for sums exceeding £1, 1s. 0d., may be made by Money Order.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices, and are open for bank business during the same hours as for money orders.

Deposits of one shilling upwards may be deposited, but fractions of a shilling may not form part of an ordinary deposit in a personal account. The deposits of Societies, Penny Banks, &c., are not subject to this limitation.

Every deposit must be entered at the time in the depositor's book by the person receiving it, who will also sign and date stamp the entry. A depositor should carefully examine his book before leaving the office, and see that the entry is correct.

In addition to the receipt in the book, the depositor will receive for every deposit of £5 or over, an acknowledgment by post from the Savings Bank Department, London. If the acknowledgment does not reach the depositor in proper time (four clear days), or if it show any signs of erasure, or does not agree with the entry in his book, the depositor should immediately apply to the Controller of the Savings Bank by letter, and should renew his application again and again until he obtains a satisfactory reply.

Any person desirous of saving one shilling by means of penny contributions for deposit, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a Penny Postage Stamp, and affixing it to a form to be obtained at any Post Office.

Interest at the rate of £2. 10s. per cent. per annum is allowed on every complete pound standing to the credit of a depositor. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound shall have been deposited up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued; and after 31st December the interest is issued to the principal.

Deposits may be made—

- (A.) By persons of full age, and not under legal disability.
- (B.) By married women.
- (C.) By children 7 years old and upwards.
- (D.) On behalf and in the names of children under 7 years old. In this case the money is not repayable until the children attain the age of 7, and is then payable to their signatures only.
- (E.) On behalf of insane persons by the committees of their estates.
- (F.) By two or more persons jointly on their own behalf. In this case neither person must have any other account in a Savings Bank.
- (G.) By one or more persons in trust for another person or persons, also named in the account. A person may act as trustee in any number of accounts, and at the same time have an account in his own name.
- (H.) By a duly registered friendly society, through its trustees.
- (I.) By a duly registered Industrial and Provident Society, not chargeable with Income Tax (see Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1893, sections 39 and 24).
- (J.) By a charitable or provident society, penny bank, or similar institution, through the trustees or treasurer.
- (K.) By corporate bodies (subject to the approval of the Postmaster-General).
- (L.) By vicars and rectors of parishes and other official persons, being corporations sole, in their official titles (subject to the approval of the Postmaster-General).

Societies wishing to deposit under (E), (H), (I), (J), (K), and (L), must first apply for authority to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, sending a copy of their rules in the case of a society or other institution.

(M.) In the name of the Registrar of any County Court. Deposits may also be made in accordance with the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament applicable to the respective cases. Trust moneys and equitable proceedings through a County Court; and under the Workmen's Compensation Acts without limit.

A depositor can, on presenting his deposit book at any Post Office Savings Bank, withdraw on demand any sum not exceeding £1. This method of withdrawal does not apply to the accounts of Societies, Penny Banks, or Corporations. If more than £1 is required, a form of notice of withdrawal, which can be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank, must be filled up and posted to the Controller. The depositor will then receive a warrant for the amount desired, payable to him upon presentation with his book at the specified Post Office. If he wishes to authorise another person to receive payment on his behalf, he can do so by executing in favour of such person an order on a form which can be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. When an account stands in the name of more than one person, payment can be made to any one of the parties if a request to that effect is made by all the parties in the notice of withdrawal.

Where the person to whom a warrant is made payable cannot write, he must, when he presents the warrant for payment, affix his mark to the receipt at the foot of the warrant in the presence of some person who is known to the paying officer, and who can identify the person applying for the money as the person named in the warrant. This person must also attest the mark by his written signature.

All deposits standing in the sole name* of a married woman domiciled in England or Ireland, will be deemed, unless and until the contrary is shown, to be the separate property of such married woman.

Payment of deposits by a married woman domiciled in Scotland, will take place subject to the provisions of the Married Women's Property (Scotland) Act, 1881.

Any woman who marries while she is a depositor, should forward to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department a certificate of her marriage, together with her deposit book, and the deposits will thereupon be entered in her married name.

Once in each year, on the anniversary of the day on which the first deposit was made, the depositor should forward the deposit book to the Controller of the Post Office Savings Bank Department in London, in order that it may be compared with the books of the department, and the interest due to the depositor inserted in it.

Every person opening an account should see that he obtains a Deposit Book. This book may be used to make deposits or withdrawals at any Post Office Savings Bank in the United Kingdom. Two patterns of deposit book are in use. If the amount of the opening deposit is 10s. or more, a book is issued in which deposits are recorded by means of written entries. If the amount of the opening deposit is less than 10s., a book is issued in which deposits are recorded by means of adhesive labels (called coupons) of the uniform value of one shilling. When the amount due in a coupon book reaches £1, the account is transferred to a book of the other pattern.

If a depositor loses his book, he should immediately give notice to the Controller, stating at what

Post Office and about what date the account was opened, and, if possible, the number of the book; also the date and amount of the last withdrawal, and at what Post Office it took place.

Postmasters and other officers of the Postmaster-General employed in the receipt or payment of deposits, are strictly forbidden to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his officers as are appointed to assist in carrying out the provisions of the Post Office Savings Banks Act.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK.

A depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires to invest in Government Stock must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. Such investments can be made in Two and a Half per cent. Consolidated Stock, Two and a Half per cent. Annuities, Two and Three Quarters per cent. Annuities (1905), Local Loans Three per cent. Stock, Guaranteed Two and Three Quarters per cent. Stock, and Guaranteed Three per cent. Stock. War Loan Three and a Half per cent. Stock, and War Loan Four and a Half per cent. Stock.

The investment will be made at the current price of the day on which the stock is purchased, the depositor's account will be charged with the cost of the investment and the commission, the necessary entries being made in his deposit book; and the depositor will be credited in the Government Stock Register of the Post Office Savings Bank with the equivalent amount of Stock, and a certificate sent him.

The minimum amount of Stock which may be bought during one calendar year is limited to £200, and the total amount of Stock which may be held in connection with a Savings Bank account is limited to £500.

Irrespective of the annual limit of £200, a depositor may, in any year ending 31st December, purchase Stock to replace one sale of Stock made in that year.

Dividends in respect of Stock standing to a depositor's credit will be carried to his deposit account.

A depositor who desires to sell the Stock standing to his credit, or part of the Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, London, together with his deposit book and investment certificate, an application signed by him on a form obtainable at any Post Office Savings Bank.

The sale will be effected at the current price of the day of sale, and a warrant will be sent the depositor for the amount realised, less commission.

The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is 9d. for the first £25, and 6d. for every additional £25, with a further charge of 6d. in respect of every £100, or part of £100, Stock above £200.

Particulars regarding Stock certificates may be learned at any Money Order Office.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE AND ANNUITY.

Immediate Annuities of not less than £1, or more than £100, may be purchased through the Post Office Savings Bank on the life of any person over 5 years of age.

If the amount of the annuity purchased is less than £100, further annuities may be purchased from time to time until the total amount is £100. These annuities are payable by equal half-yearly instalments on the 5th January and 5th July, or on the 5th April and 10th October, according to the date of purchase.

Terms of Purchase.

The sums charged for the purchase of Immediate Annuities vary with the age (a certificate of birth or baptism is required as evidence of age) and sex of the person on whose life the Annuity is to depend.

Full tables of rates can be seen at any Post Office transacting Savings Bank business, and the cost of an Annuity in any particular instance and any other information can be obtained on application to the Controller of the Savings Bank.

Joint Annuities.

Any two persons may purchase an Immediate Annuity on their joint lives, with or without continuance of the annuity to the survivor. The cost of any Joint Annuity will be furnished on application being made to the Controller of the Savings Bank, giving the age and sex of each of the persons on whose life the Annuity is to depend.

Life Certificates.

Before any half-yearly instalment of an annuity can be paid, the person on whose life the annuity depends must be proved to be alive on the date the instalment becomes due. A form of life certificate for this purpose is provided by the department.

Forms of proposal for the insurance of lives and the purchase of annuities may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

INSURANCES.

Government Life Insurance for sums up to £100 on the lives of persons between 14 and 65 years of age are available through the agency of the Post Office. Children under 8 years of age are not insured, and insurance of those between 8 and 14 is limited to £5.

Insurance for a sum to be paid at death can be effected by a single payment, by annual payments ceasing at 60 years of age, or by annual payments throughout life.

Insurance for a sum to be paid on the attainment of the age of 55, 60, or 65 years, or sooner in the event of death, can be effected by a single payment or by annual payments to cease at the selected age.

Insurance for a sum to be paid at the expiration of 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, or 40 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single premium according to the age of the insured person.

Insurances for sums from £5 to £25 may be effected with or without a medical examination, but for insurance above that amount examination (which is free) is necessary.

Premiums payable weekly by means of Postage Stamps.

The premiums are payable by means of ordinary postage stamps to be affixed weekly by the insured person within a premium book. At the end of each 13 weeks the stamped page containing the quarter's premiums will be withdrawn on presentation of the book at a Post Office, and a receipt for the amount will be given on the counterfoil. A simplified proposal form may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

If, after having paid not less than two annual premiums, an insured should be unable to continue or should desire to discontinue the payments, such sum of money as the National Debt Commissioners shall determine to be the surrender value will be returned.

Any person, not under the age of 16 years, to whom an insurance is granted may nominate any person to receive the money due at death, and a form of nomination, with full instructions as to filling up, can be obtained upon application to the Controller of the Post Office Savings Bank, London, from whom any further information in connection with annuity and insurance business can be obtained.

TRUNK TELEPHONE LINES.

Public Call Offices in Edinburgh.—GENERAL POST OFFICE, open always. LEITH (Constitution Street), open from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. STOCK EXCHANGE, open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturdays to 2 p.m.

There is a Telephone Silence Cabinet at the General Post Office.

Communication by Telephone has been established between Edinburgh and the more important towns in the United Kingdom.

The Scale of Charges for three minutes' conversation is as follows:—

|                                                                    |         |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| For distance not exceeding 25 miles . . .                          | 4d.     |
| For distances exceeding 25 miles and not exceeding 50 miles . . .  | 8d.     |
| For distances exceeding 50 miles and not exceeding 75 miles . . .  | 1s.     |
| For distances exceeding 75 miles and not exceeding 100 miles . . . | 1s. 4d. |
| For every additional 40 miles or fraction thereof . . .            | 8d.     |

Special rates are charged where Submarine lines are used.

The period of conversation is three minutes from the time when the caller has been informed that the connection is completed, but any caller, by prepaying a double fee, may secure either the uninterrupted use of a Trunk line for six minutes or the option of extending a three minutes' conversation to six minutes on demand at the end of the first period. Callers are required to pay a Call Office fee of 2d. on inward Trunk calls and also, in addition to the Trunk fee, on calls originated at Call Offices. No person is entitled to use a Trunk line continuously for more than six minutes.

The charge for a six minutes' conversation between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. is the same as for a conversation of three minutes' duration in the day time. During the same period, for a three minutes' conversation, for which the day charge is 1s., a reduced fee of 8d. is charged, and half the usual day charge is made where the ordinary fee is 1s. 4d., or more.

Further information regarding Telephone Service can be ascertained by applying to the Secretary, General Post Office.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 9d. for twelve words, including the address, and 3d. for every additional word.

Telegrams in plain language, in any European tongue or in Latin, are charged for according to the number of words; but all words, not forming part of any European language or of Latin, and all unintelligible combinations of letters are charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person or firm in the same free delivery will be delivered at a charge of 3d. per copy in addition to a halfpenny for each word in the address of the copy.

When the terminal telegraph office, i.e. the office nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for the transmission covers the cost of delivery within three miles, or within the town postal delivery when that extends for more than three miles. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within three miles only.

When the address is beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 3d. per mile, or any part thereof, the charge being calculated from the limit of the free delivery.

The sender is responsible for the portage, and when the address is not within the free delivery, he must, if practicable, state the distance and pay the portage in advance. When the exact distance is not known, a deposit must be paid.

If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post (no charge is then made for delivery) or by train from the terminal office, the sender should write the word 'post' before the addressee's name, and, at the end of the address, the name of the office at which the telegram is to be posted; if by train, the word 'train,' or 'train from—,' should be written at the end of the address, and in the latter case he must pay the cost, or deposit 1s. if the cost is not known.

A deposit for boat hire is required upon all telegrams addressed to a ship, unless the ship be alongside a wharf; any surplus is refunded.

Telegrams may be repeated at the request of the sender, by being telegraphed back from office to office, but no copy is given to the sender. The charge for repetition is one-half the ordinary tariff, a fraction of a halfpenny being reckoned as a halfpenny.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission. Should it be found that the telegram has been incorrectly transmitted, the amount paid will be refunded, or the receiver may have part of it repeated under the same conditions, but the minimum charge is 4½d.

The sender should furnish his address, to enable the Department to communicate with him if necessary. When not telegraphed, it should be written on the back of the form.

The cost of a reply to a telegram, not exceeding forty-eight words, may be prepaid; and a Reply Form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any telegraph office, at any time within twelve months. If the Form be not used, it may within the same period be sent to the Secretary, G.P.O., and the value will be refunded to the sender. A Reply Form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used to prepay any message.

Telegrams re-directed to a second address are liable, if any additional service is performed, to an additional charge of 9d. if the two addressees are within the same town, but if the addressees are in different towns the full inland rate is charged. Removals are registered free for one month when this is especially requested; and instructions for the re-direction of Telegrams at hours when the place of business is closed are registered on payment of £1. 1s. per annum; but in both these cases the telegrams are subject to the usual charges for re-direction and portage.

Persons not wishing to send to a telegraph office may post a prepaid telegram, addressed 'Telegram—Immediate,' in a wall or pillar box, or in the letter-box of a sub-post office. Telegrams may also be posted not enclosed in covers. Telegrams so posted are sent on to the nearest telegraph office by the next collection. The period of arrival at the postal telegraph office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public.

Telegrams posted insufficiently prepaid are forwarded to their destination, the difference of charge being obtained from the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

No combination of words is counted as one word, with the exception of those which are ordinarily coupled by hyphens, such as 'mother-in-law,' 'non-delivery,' 'fifty-one,' etc.

Certain exceptional names, such as O'Neil, MacDonald, De la Rue, are charged for as single words. So, too, are names with the prefix 'St,' as St Pancras, but double names like Bouverie-Tracy, although written with a hyphen, are counted as two words. Such abbreviations as 'can't,' 'don't,' 'shan't,' are counted as single words.

Figures are counted at the rate of five to a word; and in fractions according to the number of figures employed, one figure being counted for the mark of division,—thus  $\frac{1}{2}$  is one word, and  $246\frac{1}{2}$  two words. In groups of figures a stop or oblique stroke is counted as a figure.

The symbols o/o, a/c, b/l, and c/o are each counted as a word.

Ordinal numbers are charged in the same way as cardinal, with the addition of one word for the affix st, nd, rd, th.

When a group of figures is followed or preceded by a letter, thus 123a or A123, the letter is counted as two words.

The sender may have any instructions, such as 'private,' 'confidential,' 'to be opened at once,' or the like, written on the outside of the envelope of the message. The instructions will be charged for as part of the message.

Telegrams addressed to a Telegraph Office to be called for are kept for two days.

Any person may register an abbreviated address on payment of the fee of 21s. a year. The address must consist of two words, one of which is the name of the town or place of delivery; the other must be a dictionary word, containing not more than ten letters.

Night telegraph letters may be sent between any two towns in which the Head Telegraph Offices are always open for delivery by the first post the next morning (including Sunday, if there is a Sunday delivery). The rate is 9d. for thirty-six words or less, and  $\frac{3}{4}$ d. for every three words beyond thirty-six.

Telegraph offices are, as a rule, open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. on Sundays. There are, however, offices in several of the larger towns which are open longer; and at various offices in London and in the country the attendance is continuous.

G.P.O., EDINBURGH, ALWAYS OPEN.

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

Foreign telegrams are divided into two kinds—telegrams in plain language and telegrams in code language. Those in plain language must be written in self-explanatory English or French.

Telegrams written in one of the authorised codes (full particulars can be obtained at any Telegraph Office) may be forwarded to places in British and Allied territory outside Europe, and with certain exceptions to places in the territory of neutral States outside Europe.

Telegrams in private code or in any other unauthorised code cannot be accepted. In order to expedite the transmission of code telegrams, senders should deposit translations of the telegrams when they are handed in; and in all cases the name of the code used must be indicated by the sender on the telegram form. A special fee of 6d. will be charged for each telegram in code.

The address of the telegram must be paid for, and must not consist of less than two words, a name and town. Example: Hercules, Bombay. Such abbreviated addresses should be registered at the office of destination.

The address of the sender is charged for; if transmitted; in any case, it must be written at the foot of the form.

In telegrams written in plain language the length allowed for a word is 15 letters; any additional letters are charged for at the rate of 15 letters to the word.

Subject to this limit, ordinary compound words and names written without break are counted as single words. If joined by a hyphen, or separated by an apostrophe or other sign of punctuation, they are counted as so many separate words. The name of the place and country of designation in the addresses of telegrams are charged for as one word each, when so written by the sender, whatever their length.

Every separate letter or figure is charged for as a word. Groups of figures are counted at the rate of five letters or figures to a word, and at the same rate for any excess. Bars of division, decimal points, and stops used in the formation of numbers are counted as figures. Letters added to figures to form ordinal numbers or commercial marks, or to represent the number of a house, are counted as figures.

A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram (all the words in the several addresses and the text being counted), and a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered if the number of chargeable words per copy does not exceed 100; an additional sum of 5d. per copy being charged for every additional 100 words or part of 100 words; but telegrams of this kind are not accepted for transmission by the routes of the North Atlantic cable companies, either for America or for transmission over the Pacific cable.

Telegrams may be sent from one place to another abroad by post. If the telegram be intended for delivery in the same country no charge for postage is made. If intended for delivery in another country and has to be forwarded over sea, a charge for postage is collected; and if the telegram is to be posted as a registered letter a registration fee of  $2\frac{1}{2}$ d. is charged in addition to the charge for postage, if any.

SPECIAL WEEK-END LETTER TELEGRAMS FROM AND TO HIS MAJESTY'S FORCES.

By this service, week-end letter telegrams from members of the Forces can be accepted at Telegraph Offices in the United Kingdom for transmission to most places in British territory or in British occupation outside of Europe and in the Mediterranean. Such telegrams will also be accepted from the general public to members of the Forces serving outside of Europe or in the Mediterranean. Such messages must bear the indication "E.F.M." before the address.

Telegrams of inquiry addressed to the proper Government Authority concerning the progress of persons who have been officially reported to be wounded, seriously wounded, or dangerously wounded (but not of persons who have been slightly wounded), or to be suffering from disease, may be sent free of charge, subject to certain conditions which may be ascertained at any Telegraph Office.

TELEGRAMS TO AND FROM SHIPS BY WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Special regulations in force during the war.

Particulars of the service, together with information as to the charges, can be obtained at any Telegraph Office.

To most countries the maximum length is 3 feet 6 inches, or length and girth combined 6 feet. Parcels for Canada, however, except umbrellas, etc., must not be longer than 2½ feet. Parcels to or via New Zealand are 1s. extra when combined length and girth is over 4 feet. To Italy and Greece and their colonies, to the Argentine, Brazil and Paraguay, the maximum length is 2 feet, length and girth combined about 4 feet. In many cases, however, narrow parcels (umbrellas, sticks, etc.) may be longer.

INSURANCE.—Insurance may be effected on parcels to almost all countries up to £400, according to destination, at the following rates:—4d. for £12; and 2d. for every additional £12, up to 5s. 10d. for £400. Parcels sent to the U.S. by the semi-official service are insurable at 6d. per £12 up to 5s. for £120.

Facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to duty to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

- (e.) Settled property does not include property held under entail.

Persons Liable—How Payable.

Executor or Intromitter—Inventory.—Every person who, as executor, nearest of kin, creditor, or otherwise, intromits with or enters upon the possession or management of, any personal property wheresoever situated of which deceased, at his death, was competent to dispose, is to pay the duty thereon, on exhibiting and recording in the proper Sheriff Court, within six months of the death, an inventory (or additional or corrective inventory) of deceased's estate, and may pay, in like manner, the duty on any other property passing on such death, which, by virtue of any testamentary disposition of the deceased, is under his control, or in the case of property not under his control, if the persons accountable for the duty thereon request him to make such payment. He may state on inventory that he does not know amount or value of certain property which passed on the death, and undertake, as soon as ascertained, to pay duty thereon, and any further duty payable by reason thereof on the other property in the inventory.

Other persons liable.—Where executor not liable for duty, every person to whom any property passes for any beneficial interest in possession, and also, to the extent of the property actually received or disposed of by him, every trustee, tutor, curator, judicial factor, or other person in whom any interest in the property, or the management thereof, is at any time vested, and every person, in whom the same is vested in possession by alienation or other derivative title, is liable therefor, excepting one who acts merely as agent for another in the management.

Value—Deductions—Repayment.

The principal value of property is the price which, in the opinion of the commissioners, it would fetch if sold in the open market at the time of deceased's death.

DEBTS AND FUNERAL EXPENSES.—Allowance against the gross principal value is made for reasonable funeral expenses, and for debts and incumbrances (including debts secured on heritage) incurred or created by the deceased bonâ fide for full consideration in money or money's worth, wholly for his own use or benefit, and taking effect out of his interest.

No allowance can be made for any debt in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other estate or person, unless such reimbursement cannot be obtained.

When Due—Additional Duty—Interest.

Due.—The duty which is to be collected on a inventory or account is due on the delivery thereof, or at the expiration of six months from the death, whichever first happens.

Income.—Every estate is to include all income accrued upon the property down to the date of deceased's death.

Additional duty.—Duty is, in the first instance, calculated at the appropriate rate according to the value of the estate, as set forth in inventory or account, but if afterwards it appears that for any reason too little duty has been paid, the additional duty is payable, and is treated as duty in arrear, unless a certificate of discharge delivered.

Heritable estate.—The duty upon an account of heritable property may, at the option of the person delivering the account, be paid by eight equal yearly instalments or sixteen half-yearly instalments, with interest at the rate of 3 per cent. from the date at which the first instalment is due, and the first instalment is to be due at the expiration of twelve months from the death, and the interest on the unpaid portion of the duty is to be added to each instalment and paid accordingly; but the duty for the time being unpaid, with such interest to the date of payment, may be paid at any time, and, in case the property is sold, is to be paid on completion of the sale, and if not so paid, is to be duty in arrear.

Annuity or definite annual sum terminable or perpetual may at option of person delivering account be payable by four annual instalments.

Interest.—Interest at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum is payable on estate duty from the date when the duty is due, or if the duty is payable by instalments from the date when the first instalment is due.

Small estates.—Interest is not charged on fixed duties of 30s. or 50s. if paid within twelve months of death.

Payment postponed.—Commissioners, when satisfied that duty on any property cannot, without excessive sacrifice, be raised at once, may postpone payment for such period, to such extent, and on payment of such interest, not exceeding 4 per cent. or any higher interest yielded by the property, and on such terms as they think fit.

Composition for 'Death Duties.'

Where from number of deaths on which property passed, or complicated interests of different persons therein, or other causes, it is difficult to ascertain amount of death duties (estate, inventory, temporary estate, legacy, and succession duties), or to do so without undue expense, commissioners on application, and all information being supplied, may assess such sum on the value of the property or interest as, in the circumstances, appears proper, and accept payment thereof in full discharge of all claims for death duties in respect of such property, and give a discharge accordingly. Discharge not to cover case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts.

Form of Inventory, etc.—Penalties.

Executor, or other accountable person, failing to render all appropriate accounts and statements, renders himself liable to a penalty of £100, or a sum equal to double the duty unpaid for which he is accountable, according as commissioners elect, with power to commissioners to reduce penalty.

Forms.—All inventories, accounts, certificates, statements, etc. to be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed, and, if so required by commissioners, shall be in duplicate, and accounts and statements shall be delivered and verified on oath and by production of books. Any person wilfully failing to comply with this enactment to be liable to the penalty above.

Provided that any person who is or has been employed in the service of the Crown or who is employed in the service of any missionary society abroad or in the service of any of the native states under the protectorate of the British Crown, and any person resident in the Isle of Man or Channel Islands, and any person resident abroad who satisfies the Commissioners that he is so resident for the sake of health, shall be entitled to any relief, exemption, or abatement to which he would be entitled if he were resident in the United Kingdom, and if his total income from all sources were calculated as including any income in respect of which income tax may not be chargeable as well as income in respect of which income tax is chargeable. (2) Income tax shall not be payable in respect of the interest or dividends of any securities of foreign State or a British possession which are payable in the United Kingdom, where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that the person owning the securities and entitled to the interest or dividends is not resident in the United Kingdom; but, save as provided by this or any other Act, no allow-

(2) Where supertax is charged in a case where the wife has been required to make a return under the foregoing provision, such part of the total sum payable in respect of the supertax as bears the same proportion to that total sum as the wife's income bears to the total income in respect of which supertax is charged shall be assessed on and recoverable from the wife in lieu of the husband. (3) This section shall have effect with respect to the supertax charged for the year beginning the sixth day of April nineteen hundred and nine and for any subsequent year as if it had been contained in the principal Act, and the provisions of that Act with regard to the assessment and collection of supertax, and the penalties for failure to make a return, shall apply accordingly.

LIQUOR LICENCES AND SPIRIT DUTY.

Full Licence.—Publicans who previously paid at rates varying from £4, 10s. to £60, will in future be charged at half their rental, with a minimum tax, varying according to population. As a consequence, highly rented premises will pay much more than formerly.

Beerhouse Licence.—Raised from £3, 10s. to one-third of the rental, with a minimum. As in the case of the full, or publican's licence, the highly rented houses will pay very much more.

Retailers' Off-Licences.—Duties vary according to rental; but have been raised all round. For example, a licence to sell spirits in bottles, which formerly cost £3, 3s. in England, may now cost anything from £10 up to £50.

Manufacturers' Licences.—For the old fixed duties of £1 on brewers of beer and £10, 10s. on distillers of spirits have been substituted a graduated duty on the amount produced. In the case of a brewer's licence the present duty of £1 will cover an output of 100 barrels only, and 12s. additional will be charged for every 50 barrels, or fraction of 50 barrels above that amount. The new distillers' licence will be £10 for any quantity not exceeding 5000 proof gallons, with other £10 for every additional 25,000 or fraction of 25,000 proof gallons.

Rectifiers of Spirits' Licence.—Raised from £10, 10s. to £15, 15s.

Makers' Licence for British Made Wines.—Raised from £1 to £5, 5s.

Wholesale Dealers' Licences.—Beer raised from £3, 6s. 1d. to £10, 10s.; spirits from £10, 10s. to £15, 15s. Dealers' licences formerly covered wholesale as well as retail business. In future wholesale dealers who wish to do a retail business will have to take out in addition an ordinary retailer's off-licence, subject, however, to a reduction of the scheduled rate.

Spirits Duty.—Raised from 11s. to 14s. 9d. per gallon and 16s. 3d. (under 2 years old).

Clubs.—A tax of 6d. on every £1 of liquor purchased for sale in the club.

MOTOR SPIRIT.

Finance Act, 1909-10, Sections 84 & 85.

§ 84.—(1) As from the thirtieth day of April nineteen hundred and nine there shall be charged, levied, and paid on motor spirit imported into Great Britain or Ireland a duty of Customs at the rate of sixpence per gallon.

§ 85.—(1) Any person using motor spirit for purposes other than supplying motive power for motor cars shall be entitled, in accordance with the provisions of this section, to an allowance or repayment of the duty paid in respect of the motor spirit under this Act, and any person using motor spirit for any of the purposes mentioned in parts of the Fifth Schedule of this Act shall be entitled, in accordance with the provisions of this section, to an allowance or repayment of half the amount of the duty paid under this Act in respect of the spirit.

Fifth Schedule.

Part I.—Rebate of Motor Spirit Duty.

Motor spirit used for the purpose of supplying motive power—

To a motor car which is constructed or adapted for use, and is used, solely for the conveyance of any goods or burden in the course of trade or husbandry, and whereon the Christian name and surname and place of abode or place of business of the person, or the name or style and principal or only place of business of the company or firm keeping the same, shall be legibly and visibly painted in letters of not less than one inch in length.

To a motor cab, motor omnibus, or other vehicle being a hackney carriage within the meaning of section four of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, while it is standing or plying for hire.

To a motor car which is constructed or adapted for use or is used partly for the conveyance of any goods or burden in the course of trade or husbandry, and partly as a motor cab, motor omnibus, or other vehicle being a hackney carriage within the meaning of section four of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, standing or plying for hire.

To a motor car kept by a duly qualified medical practitioner while it is being used by him for the purposes of his profession, and veterinary surgeons. (For fuller information see Finance Act, 1910.)

To a fire-engine or ambulance.

MOTOR CAR DUTIES.

(2) The unit of horse-power for the purpose of any rate of duty in the said Schedule shall be calculated in accordance with regulations made by the Treasury for the purpose, and section twenty-seven of the Revenue Act, 1869 (which relates to the prosecution of offences), shall, so far as relates to motor cars charged with duty under this section, be construed as if the horse-power of the car were substituted for the weight of the carriage.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to increase or affect the duty now payable in respect of any motor cab, motor omnibus or other vehicle being a hackney carriage within the meaning of section four of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, or to require a licence to be taken out for any motor car which is not a carriage within the meaning of that section.

(4) If a duly qualified medical practitioner proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioners or Council by whom the licence is granted that any motor car kept by him is kept for the purpose of his profession, he shall be entitled to an allowance in respect of the duty payable under this section on the licence for the car equal to half the amount of duty so payable.

(5) If any officer of the Army Motor Reserve produces to the Commissioners or Council by whom the licence is granted a certificate, granted in such manner and by such persons as the Army Council direct, that any motor car kept by him has been used for the purposes of the Army Motor Reserve under regulations made by the Army Council for at least six days in any year, he shall be entitled to an allowance in respect of the duty payable under this section on the car bearing the same proportion to the whole amount of duty as the number of days for which the car has been so used bears to a full year.

(6) No duty shall be payable under this section in respect of any motor fire-engine or ambulance.

(7) The Treasury may make regulations providing for the total or partial exemption, for a limited period, from the duty payable under this section of any motor cars brought into the United Kingdom by persons making only a temporary stay in the United Kingdom.

(98) The expression 'motor car' in this Part of this Act means any vehicle which is for the time being a light locomotive within the meaning of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896, as amended by any other Act, and includes a motor bicycle and a motor tricycle, but does not include a vehicle drawn by a motor car. (For fuller information see Finance Act, 1910.)

Motor Cycle Rate.

Under 4 horse-power, £2, 2s.; over 4 horse-power, three-quarter duty of rate of car.

DEPOSITORS with this Company possess SECURITY of a high character. The Funds are lent over HERITABLE PROPERTIES WITHIN SCOTLAND. The Loans are, on the average, moderate in amount, and in very many cases are repayable by instalments, so that the margin of security is being steadily increased.

In addition to these Investments, the Company's UNCALLED CAPITAL, amounting to £170,000, furnishes a valuable Guarantee to Depositors; while the RESERVE FUND, amounting to £30,000, for the most part invested in BANK OF ENGLAND STOCK and GOVERNMENT LOAN STOCK, affords a still further substantial Security. There is also a Depreciation Fund of £6600.

The Rate of INTEREST allowed on Deposits varies from 2 to 5 per cent., according to the term for which the money is lodged.

BORROWERS will find the Company's arrangements simple and equitable. Parties are assisted in the Purchase of HOUSES or SHOPS for their own occupation, for which purpose the Company's system of accepting repayment by instalments is specially commended to Householders. The Rates for Instalment Loans have recently been reduced.

Borrowers do not, in virtue of obtaining Loans, become Members of the Company, and they incur none of the responsibilities of Shareholders. No Commission or Fines charged.

Loans on Heritable Security and Building Advances are granted on moderate terms.

LAUNDRY.

HOUSE OF MERCY, ST. CATHARINE'S CONVENT,
4 LAURISTON GARDENS,
EDINBURGH.

---

SPECIAL ATTENTION.—The Sisters of Mercy who conduct this LAUNDRY—opened Thirty-five Years ago, and now enjoying extensive patronage from Families resident in Edinburgh, Schools, and Hotels—solicit further Orders. Terms moderate. Printed Price List to be obtained by application to the REVEREND MOTHER SUPERIOR at above address.

---

The Van collects and returns Washings in all parts of the City and Suburbs.

---

The House of Mercy has been established to board, lodge, and train as domestic servants, girls who have no home or proper protection. Numbers of girls are being lost daily for want of those safeguards which a respectable home ensures, and which are so necessary for a girl in a city like Edinburgh. Those only who visit the very poorest and lowest localities can know the terrible dangers and temptations by which such girls are surrounded. It is idle to deplore the number of those who fall, and who, besides losing their own souls, bring many others to ruin, if strenuous efforts are not at the same time made to avert this evil. The SISTERS, therefore, confidently appeal to the charitable for assistance in a work which, they venture to think, can have no small claim on their sympathy and support.

Annual Subscriptions, however small, and Donations of Money, Food, or Clothes, will be thankfully acknowledged by the Reverend Mother Superior, who will be happy to show Visitors over the Laundry on Thursdays and Fridays.
